In Memoriam...

*When the night has been too lonely and the road has been too long and you think that love is only for the lucky and the strong just remember in the winter far beneath the bitter snow lies a seed that with the suns love
in the spring becomes a Rose.*

Amelia McBroom

Between the reality and the freshness exists a state of mind... the passage will be open by those who hear the silent sound of her wings.

The silent sound of her heavy wings will bring the whisper of the thunder..

00000000
10-2000
The echo of her soul,
The paradise guardian,
The spirit of the morning after.
We love you.

The Class of 2005 dedicates this yearbook to a man who has stood by us as individuals and has given his whole heart to this school. As both a teacher and as a coach, he has set an example for us in the classroom as well as in sports. He is a role model like no other, and inspires us to achieve the best that we can by emphasizing that anything is possible. That is why, Mr. Sylvain, we dedicate this to you, our Climber.

I leave Mrs. DeLorenzo a yearbook without superlatives.
I leave Mrs. Kenrick my good sense of direction and knowledge of WB high.
I leave Mr. Sylvain a board that he doesn't have to erase.
I leave Mr. Klaiman a whole school year without seeing my face in his office for disciplinary reasons.
I leave Ms. Emord a muddy hug.
I leave Mrs. Mischley an E-block class.
I leave Mr. McMurray a "Physics Rocks!"
I leave Mrs. Seifkas a "Palo, Palo."
I leave Mr. Gaudet the $3000 comics I drew for his class.
I leave Mr. Gaudet a good AP English discussion.
I leave one of my siblings...actually take 2 or 3.
I leave homework: A six page theme paper, double spaced in size 12 Times New Roman!
I leave Doc Russell a box of Quaker Oatmeal.
I leave Mrs. Schmeer a big bottle of aspirin.
I leave Mr. Klaiman all my tardies.
I leave Mr. Gaudet good talks in English.
I leave Mr. McMurray fingernail clippers.
I leave Mr. Flaherty another year with Bryan.
I leave Mrs. Zutaut a squirrel.
I leave Mr. Sylvain all of my unfinished Comp. Sci. programs.
I leave Mr. McMurray my whole sophomore year in Chemistry.
I leave Mr. Klaiman some anger management classes.
I leave Mr. Collins a trumpet player almost as good as me.
I leave Ms. Aiello an I-yuh, a Galileo and sit up.
I leave Mr. Sylvain a decent 4x1 team.
I leave Ms. Conniff a whole year of volleyball in gym class.
I leave Mr. McMurray a ladder to get on the roof.
I leave Mrs. Zutaut a never ending supply of heat.
I leave Nurse Schmeer, respect and love for being a great person.
I leave Mrs. DePaola my smile.
I leave everyone memories of me.
I leave Mrs. Kenrick a great big HUG!
I leave Mrs. Schmeer paper to do her picture board.
I leave Coach Pratt some new highlights and hair extensions.
I leave Mr. Sarro an Anatomy student who complains like me.
I leave Mr. Gaudet a library of boring books to make us read.
I leave Klaiman a broken megaphone (he's loud enough).
I leave Mr. Nenos all my respect.
I leave Mr. Finley a gnarly painting.
I leave Mr. McMurray a bigger budget.
I leave Mr. McMurray a physics student who actually does work.

I leave Mr. Nenos an "excellent".
I leave Mrs. Peckham an 03-04 Soc. Class who can never play Jeopardy and who learned from each other.
I leave Ms. Ahrens 03-04 E block US History class another bug story and an unforgettable quote.
I leave Ms. Lafferty a free standing Christmas tree.
I leave Mrs. Peckham a bowl of candy that lasts a day.
I leave Mr. Nenos a meep meep.
I leave Mrs. Kenrick 20 SAT hotwords.
I leave Mr. Gaudet a piece of tomato soup cake.
I leave Mr. Barret a special play for basketball and a new person to pick on.
I leave Mr. Finley more unfinished artwork and all my artistic temper tantrums.
I leave Mr. Collins a megaphone with which he can be heard over the choir conversations.
I leave Mr. Gaudet some jokes.
I leave Mrs. Emord the award for best teacher ever.
I leave Graz a "high five".
I leave Mrs. Peckham many early 6 a.m. meetings.
I leave Dr. Russell a "G" rated film.
I leave Mr. McMurray a periodic table.
I leave Mr. Bodwell some earplugs and a bottle of aspirin.
I leave WB High students some skills on doing it how we did it!
I leave Mr. Klaiman a video tape of the Red Sox beating the Yankees this past season.
A great man once said, "I leave nothing, how do you like them apples!"
I leave Mr. Gaudet a thoughtful email.
I leave Mrs. DeLorenzo a great yearbook.
I leave Mr. Nenos another drummer for future dual drums at Midnight Madness.
I leave Mr. Nenos an all expense paid trip to Greece.
I leave Mrs. Graziano somebody else to call her mom!
I leave Mr. Collins a "Jim and John Nasty Beat Special."
I leave Mr. McMurray more problem crunching skills.
I leave Dr. Russell boxes and boxes of worksheets.
I leave Mr. Gaudet just a little more sarcasm.
I leave Mrs. Conniff a flag football rule book.
I leave Mrs. Graziano something for us to argue about.
I leave Mrs. Kenrick a, "What happens in CT, stays in CT."
I leave Mr. Sarro a new "sunshine" and stair walking lessons.

For all my friends....Josh, good times spending money at the Dew, and jamming at the nip. Bryan, lets keep rockin, and try to stay away from mud. Jesse M.. Fuggedabout it, John M., The band empire was created, and dominates. Kevin H., I am still cool. Thanks to Mr. Collins for all the must music events. Mr. Nenos, thanks for being the drum man in the Jazz band. Thank you to all of the teachers I've had this year and past years. For all of those in the senior class that I did not mention, it has been a great run for all of us, and good luck with your lives. As we enter the real world, we then have to grow up and face facts, but the memories that we have made with each other will be with us forever and will remind us of a truly good time.

"Always say what's on your mind even if people don't like it because if you don't say it then it might not get said." -Self

"Free at last"-I wipe one single tear from my eye as the school doors close one last time. I say goodbye to WB High, good-bye to all the drama. To the do re dos of chorus, to the never ending days, to the ones who impacted me, part of me wants to stay. The other 1/2 screams free at last it's time! Its time to go, to open a new chapter in my life, there's so much more to see than the walls of WB High, fun times for me. Good times in Theater 04-Allen, Kendra, Jblye, and Christina-I don't know if I could have made it through my first year here without that class. Although we all had our share of Poor-Me-Syndrome, and some days all things seemed to go wrong! We managed to have a good year in the end-Good times in Chorus 05-Mel, Angie, Allen, Brandy, Laura, what would I do without the comedic jokes. "If we only had some duct tape."

Finally, the time at WB is over. There has been some interesting memories to say the least. Jordan, Kate and Rob the coolest dumb kids in all of physics class. Bill some pretty fun adventures through Brockton, ditching karate, going to Wendy's everyday of the summer. Danielle thanks for all of the amazing times, some that were fun were the trips in the woods, teaching you how to drive, all of the days/nights at Jess' and Bills and all the fun stuff we have to look forward to in the future. I love you GOOB! I wanna say thanks to the fam for putting up with me even though I am your best kid. I hope everybody the best that life has to offer...wait no I don't I hope you all live lonely meaningless lives so I feel better about myself at reunions.

So many memories over the years. All of them have affected us in many ways. Going to this school was great. I owe a lot to this school. When I first came here I was quiet and now you can't keep me quiet. I'm going to miss all of my friends. Angela-great times in chorus. Kate-chorus isn't the same without you, incense. Rochal-so many ups and downs in our lives, but we made it through. Fun times at Tim's, going to the mall, incense, and almost lighting my house and a tree on fire. Prom was okay but it could have been better. Crazy people. Looking forward to our Graduation day, but I will miss you all. It will be our last day together as an entire class. On our special day, we will all remember the people who couldn't graduate with us. The one that all will remember is KLS. Everyone liked her. She is an angel. Class 05

A black and white photograph of an indoor basketball game. In the foreground, a player in a white jersey with the number 15 is dribbling the ball with his right hand, moving towards the right. He is being closely guarded from behind by a player in a dark jersey with the number 24. In the background, several other players and spectators are visible. A sign on the wall reads "CHAMPIONS". The floor is polished and reflects the overhead lights.

We are filled with love and pride as we watch you complete this phase of your life.
You are a fantastic son and a wonderful brother!

Our wishes for your future are expressed perfectly in the lyrics of this song:

May the good Lord be with you down
every road you roam

And may sunshine and happiness
surround you when you're far from home
And may you grow to be proud dignified and true
And do unto others as you'd have done to you

Be courageous and be brave,
and in our hearts you'll always stay
- Forever Young (Rod Stewart)

We love you so much, Mom, Dad, Jared, and Jacob

To the Class of 2005:

Congratulations on your achievement. You have been part of a small community where small means great! You have made friends over your years in school and many of these relationships will last forever. Your parents, family and the West Bridgewater community are very proud of you and your accomplishments.

This is the end of your journey through the West Bridgewater Public Schools. You have been encouraged by your parents and teachers to share many experiences, in the classroom, on the athletic field, on the stage and in the community. You need to continue to do your best and maximize your potential. Set your goals, dream, work hard and you will be successful. Do what is right and plan on giving back to your community in some small way.

On behalf of the entire School District, I wish you well on your next journey.

Congratulations Class of 2005 ! As you graduate and leave to follow your dreams, we hope you remember with pleasure the time you spent here in West Bridgewater. Education is a life long journey and you now have a foundation that you can build upon as you enter the next phase of your life. We wish you strength and wisdom to overcome any challenges the world may present.

The West Bridgewater School Committee is very proud of your individual and group accomplishments in academics, athletics and the arts. We have been honored and pleased to be a partner in your education over the past thirteen years.

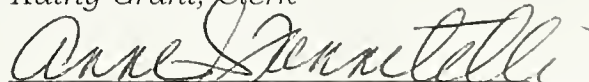

We wish you good luck and success, and remember that you will always have the support of the West Bridgewater community.
